

A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said:
"I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was a smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost."

The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a bottle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.

Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

New Perfection WICK BLUE FLAME Oil Cook-stove

It has a Cabinet Top with a shelf for keeping plates and food hot. The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

MINING NOTES.

Thos. N. Black, of Shamrock, spent Monday in the city on business.

Thos. O. Long left Monday for Webster county to inspect the mines in that county.

Jno. Carroll, mine superintendent of the mines at Circle City, was in the city with friends Sunday.

M. B. Ray is weighing coal at No. 9 mine during the absence of Jno. M. Hogan, who is in New Orleans this week.

A good many miners from the Indiana and Illinois coal fields are visiting friends and relatives in the city during the shut down in those mines.

Thos. O. Long has a new gas miner's lamp which throws a light a great distance and is worn on the head as the oil lamp. The cost of these lamps is cheap and enough carbide can be carried to last for some time. It has a storage capacity for eight hours and is the first ever seen in Earlinton.

True Courage.
The bravery founded on hope of recompense, fear of punishment, experience of success, on rage, or on ignorance of danger, is but common bravado, and does not deserve the name. True bravery proposes a just end; measures the dangers, and meets the result with calmness and unyielding decision.

Good Reason.
"I suppose you all drank a toast to your host?" "No, we out that out." "Why, I am sure it was on the program, the last toast." "That was the trouble. It was the last toast, and so we out it out." "But why?" "Well, you see, it was to have been drunk standing."—Houston Post.

Extract a Cork.
Take a piece of string that will stand some strain, fold it to form a loop, insert it into the bottle, shake the cork into the loop and pull. Out pops the cork! Should the bottle contain anything, empty it, remove the cork and refill.

Sense of Honor.
The sense of honor is of so fine and delicate a nature that it is only to be met with in minds which are naturally noble, or in such as have been cultivated by great examples or a refined education.—Addison.

COMPARES KENTUCKY WITH PROHIBITION MAINE

Gov. Willson Tells New Yorkers of Our 107 Dry Counties.

New York, April 12.—Kentucky's fame as the land of the mint julep will soon be a thing of the past, according to Governor A. E. Willson, who is in New York to attend the annual banquet tonight of the Kentucky Society of New York. The prohibition wave has struck the Commonwealth long noted for its good whisky, he says, and well nigh the entire State is now dry.

"There is really no State in the Union," said Governor Willson, "where more good whisky is made and less drunk. There are 107 dry counties in the State and on the whole the laws are rigidly enforced. I will wager that there is less drinking in Kentucky than in the prohibition State of Maine."

Singer and Orator.

"If I had my way," Dr. Macnamara once confessed to an interviewer, "I should be singing in 'Carmen' instead of making speeches from the treasury bench. But, unfortunately, the British public thinks a great deal more of a man who can make a bad speech than a man who can sing a good song."—Westminster Gazette.

Curiosity on the Farm.

A little girl of the electric lighted places went to her grandfather's farm to spend the summer. She saw an unfamiliar animal on one of her strolls and ran to the house very much frightened. "I don't know if it was a snake or an owl," she said, "but it runned crooked and spit fire, and I guess it was a griffin."

Good Will.

Good will is at work, and it is making things better. In spite of the prevailing social philosophy, it is gaining ground. Even now, with such partial, halting, half-hearted recognition as we give it, good will is making things better.—Dr. Washington Gladden.

Honor Belongs to Liverpool.

The first school for the blind in the world was established at Liverpool in 1791.

Measurements made in London schools prove that the children of the well-to-do are better grown for their age than the children of the poor.

Unreasonable.

The woman who wants to wear the trousers is unreasonable. She expects, after gaining her point, to keep right on using stockings.

The Ways of Men.

Many a man who would be unable to find the family Bible if he hunted all day would have no difficulty in putting his hand on the corkscrew, even in the dark.

Invention of the Lifeboat.

The most effective means of life-saving in the event of a storm is the lifeboat, the first one of which was launched on the Thames on January 4, 1785, by Lionel Lukin, a coach-maker of an inland town near London. The first lifeboat was a Norway yawl, which he had fitted with watertight compartments, a heavy iron keel and other essentials in buoyancy and stability, which are the cardinal and requisite features of lifeboats now.

History of New York Street.

The maiden name of Nassau street, New York, was Pie Woman's lane. It was opened in 1696 by a man named Kay, who obtained the right to make it a cartway to what is now City Hall park.

COLORED COLUMN

S. R. DRIVER, EDITOR

Goodrich for photographs.
Mrs. Roxey Radford is quite sick at this writing.

There were fine services at the Baptist church Sunday.

Don't forget the rally on the fourth Sunday at Hecla.

Rev. P. H. Kennedy passed through last Wednesday, en route Henderson.

Wash Hines was suddenly called to Olmstead to attend the funeral of his daughter.

The Knights of Friendship will again begin their weekly drill, much to the delight of all.

J. E. Killebrew has been elected a delegate the Odd Fellows District Grand Lodge, which convenes at Frankfort in July.

The Zion church has not appointed their correspondent yet, hence we have trouble in writing the news for that church.

George Amos had the misfortune to sprain his foot very badly last Sunday, on account of which he is confined to the house.

Joseph Williamson had the misfortune to hurt himself very badly, while running his machine, during the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Eaves wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to everyone who so patiently stood by them in the hour of their affliction.

The Church Aid Society will give an entertainment Friday night at the old Baptist church, at which all the delicacies of the season will be served.

Rev. H. Amos has accepted a call to one the Baptist churches in Paducah. The church has made a great gain as the Rev. is a noble preacher.

Our sick this week are: John Feely, Mrs. Mary Dunlap, Mrs. Williamson and grand child, Allen, and the infant of Mrs. William McGary, is very sick.

The C. M. E. Church had very good exercises last Sunday. Bro. G. W. Gladish was elected delegate to the Epworth League Convention, which will convene at Madisonville in May.

If you want to own a home why not begin to save even a few dollars now? Get the little folder at The Peoples Bank and see how one colored man has saved over $200.00 and did not go hungry either.

Remember the rally at Baptist church next Sunday, April 17. We will have Rev. Whiteside and his congregation from Madisonville, Hecla Baptist church, Rev. Fortna and his congregation, Rev. Garrett and the C. M. E. congregation. All moneys raised will be placed on the building fund. Each and all are cordially invited to be with us. There will be three services. We ask that each member do his whole duty.

Love Versus Passion.

Love and passion are too often mistaken, for they are in reality distinct. Love elevates, passion degrades; love enlarges the heart, passion narrows it. Pure love is entirely free from the taint of passion and is as rare as pure charity.—Home Notes.
